Discovering Strengths: The Power of Descriptive Writing Webinar

Writing descriptively is essential when undertaking the Discovery process as part of Customised Employment. When you write descriptively, a person's competencies start to emerge!

Join us for an informative and interactive webinar that dives into Discovery, the first stage of Customised Employment, and explore how descriptive writing plays a vital role in creating meaningful job opportunities for young people with disability. You will learn the importance of writing detailed, strengths-based descriptions that highlight a person's unique skills and interests.

What will the webinar cover?

- Brief overview of Customised Employment and the first stage of Discovery
- What descriptive writing is and how it is used in Customised Employment
- Techniques for using descriptive writing to highlight strengths and interests
- How to use descriptive writing to create effective profile documents
- Real examples and practical activities

What is School To Work?

The School to Work project aims to inspire and equip students with disability, through the support of families, to seek meaningful, paid employment in the community.

Who is this webinar for?

Families who are currently supporting their family member through the Customised Employment approach.

Professionals wanting to learn more about the specific tools used within the Customised Employment process.
