Employment Supports: Securing the Right Match Webinar

Finding the right support in employment is an essential element in ensuring a person with disability achieves success in a role. It's about finding the right 'match' ...but there is so much more to consider!

In this webinar we'll share approaches, strategies and tips for family and allies, to help you find the right job supports for the person with disability in your life so they achieve the best employment outcomes.

Our approach is different from methods traditionally used in the disability sector; we aim to provide strategies that offer a more individualised approach to support, resulting in the person being more authentically included.

We'll cover:

- Finding the right match
- Role of the job coach
- Characteristics of a good job coach
- Steps in finding the right support
- Supporting the job coach in their role
- Approaches, strategies and tips
- Individualised approach
